

ALFONSO NIEVES RUIZ

<http://anrstudios.com/>

SELECTED SHOWS AND PUBLIC ART

La ronda parakata (2016)

Co-created sculpture with Héctor Duarte
Collaboration with the Field Museum and the Chicago Park District

Mural at Dewey Elementary School (2015)

30' x 8'
Mosaic with acrylic
Incorporates Mesoamerican indigenous themes into a mural about education

La muerte niña: Day of the Dead (2015)

Installation about the 43 disappeared students from Ayotzinapa

UrBs in Horto (2014-2015) at the African American Cultural Center at UIC

Expo Chicago – “Border Crossings: Mexico/USA” with the National Museum of Mexican Art (2014)

Rito y Recuerdo: Day of the Dead (2014) at the National Museum of Mexican Art, Chicago, IL

We Are Light at LaSalle II Magnet School (2014)

65' x 13'
Co-created mosaic mural with Chicago Public Art Group
Incorporates themes from five different cultures into a mural about recreation

Birds of Migration (2014) at the UIC Heritage Garden

Community workshop and art installation

I AMERICAN – Zhou B. Art Center, Chicago (2015), Water Street Studio, Batavia, IL (2014)

Americas Latino Eco Festival (2013, 2014)

Guest artist for the festival in Boulder, CO
Community art projects and installations at the CU Museum of Natural History

Ten Thousand Ripples (2013)

Created and installed a sculpture to collaborate with Indira Johnson's Buddha project
Gad's Hill Community Center, Loyola University Chicago

Pulso: Art of the Americas – Urban Institute for Contemporary Arts, Grand Rapids, MI (2013)

Garfield Park Conservatory Chicago's Twelve: 12 Artists Mobilizing the Earth (2012)

Cabeza de Barro – Two-person Show at the National Museum of Mexican Art (2011)

One piece part of permanent collection

Cool Globes (2007)

Co-created Creative Innovation Globe
Currently located at Northerly Island, Chicago